SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

1.1. APPLICABILITY. This issuance applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD.

1.2. POLICY.

a. The Secretaries of the Military Departments have discretionary authority to establish CIPs, and administer, as necessary, any such programs established.

b. CIPs will be administered in accordance with Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C., and this issuance.

1.3. INFORMATION COLLECTIONS. The CIP annual report, referred to in Paragraph 3.12., has been assigned report control symbol DD-P&R(A)2578, in accordance with the procedures in Volume 1 of DoD Manual 8910.01.

SECTION 2: RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1. ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF DEFENSE FOR MANPOWER AND RESERVE AFFAIRS. Under the authority, direction, and control of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs oversees and monitors the implementation of CIPS by the Military Departments, compliance with the requirements in Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C., and this issuance, and provides implementing guidance, as appropriate.

2.2. SECRETARIES OF MILITARY DEPARTMENTS. The Secretaries of Military Departments implementing a CIP:

a. Develop and promulgate implementing guidance in accordance with Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C., and this issuance.

b. Determine the number of Service members who may participate in the program.

c. Submit annual reports on CIPs to the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness by June 1 of each year. These reports will contain, at a minimum, the information listed in Paragraph 3.12 of this issuance.

d. Ensure that any reports or associated documents are maintained and disposed of in accordance with DoD Instructions (DoDIs) 1336.08 and 5015.02 and Administrative Instruction 15.

SECTION 3: PROCEDURES

3.1. CONDITIONS OF RELEASE. Each Service member participating in a CIP must sign a written agreement with his or her Military Service agreeing to accept an appointment or enlistment, as applicable, and serve in the Individual Ready Reserve during the period of inactivation from active duty.

a. Officers must receive original appointments to the Reserve Active Status List before departing and must receive original appointments to the Active Duty List when they return from the intermission, in accordance with DoDIs 1310.02 and 1300.04.

b. The written agreement accepting an appointment or enlistment to the Individual Ready Reserve, and other documents related to participation in a CIP, must be included in the Service member's official military personnel file.

3.2. PROCEDURES AND STANDARDS DURING INACTIVATION. The written agreement must include inactive duty training requirements, as determined by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, in order to maintain the Service member's skills, professional qualifications, and physical readiness standards.

3.3. OBLIGATION IN EXCHANGE FOR PROGRAM PARTICIPATION. In accordance with Section 710(c)(3) of Title 10, U.S.C., the written agreement must include the participant's agreement to the requirement that he or she serve 2 months on active duty as a member of the Military Service concerned for each month of inactivation as a participant in the CIP. Service members approved for CIP participation who, at the time of beginning his or her inactivation, are serving under a service agreement entered into upon entry onto active duty, (e.g., service obligations from participation in Senior Reserve Officer Training Corps programs, attendance from a Military Service Academy, or an enlistment contract), or a service obligation resulting from an educational or training program (e.g., Funded Legal Education, Professional Military Education, or Training with Industry), will serve his or her CIP obligation after they have completed the active duty service obligation incurred as a result of his or her agreement to enter active duty service (i.e., the service obligation from CIP will run consecutively to any preexisting service obligation of the Service member at the time of his or her inactivation).

3.4. INFORMED DECISION TO PARTICIPATE. The Military Department concerned will establish procedures to ensure the Service member is thoroughly counseled on the benefits, compensation, medical care, etc., associated with participation in any CIP in accordance with Section 710 of title 10, U.S.C., and this issuance. Such counseling must be documented in writing, with a copy retained in the Service member's official military personnel file.

3.5. EFFECT OF INACTIVATION.

a. The CIP agreement with the participating Service member must specify the period of inactivation from active duty. The inactivation period must not exceed 3 years.

b. The Military Department concerned will ensure participating members are properly accounted for with the Defense Manpower Data Center as a loss from active end strength and a gain to the Individual Ready Reserve end strength.

c. In accordance with Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C., a Service member's period of inactivation through CIP participation will not count towards:

(1) Eligibility for retirement or transfer to the Ready Reserve in accordance with Chapter 367, 571, 867, or 1223 of Title 10, U.S.C.

(2) Computation of retired or retainer pay under Chapter 71 or 1223 of Title 10, U.S.C.

d. A Service member serving in a joint duty assignment list position, as defined in DoDI 1300.19, may not participate in CIP before completion of the joint duty assignment.

e. Any service by a Reserve Component officer while participating in a CIP will be excluded from computation of the officer's total years of service pursuant to Section 14706(a) of Title 10, U.S.C.

3.6. EDUCATIONAL BENEFITS. Service members are not eligible to receive tuition assistance while in the Individual Ready Reserve. Time in the Individual Ready Reserve is not credited towards eligibility for benefits under Section 3319 of Title 38, U.S.C., and DoDI 1341.13 also known as and referred to in this issuance as the "Post 9-11 GI Bill." Service members already entitled to Post 9-11 GI Bill benefits may use them while in the Individual Ready Reserve.

3.7. PAY AND ALLOWANCES. Pay and allowances will be in accordance with Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C. Specifically:

a. Service members are entitled to:

(1) Monthly basic pay in an amount equal to 2/30ths of the monthly basic pay to which the Service member would otherwise be entitled under Section 204 of Title 37, U.S.C., as a Service member on active duty in the grade and with the years of service the member had when participation in a CIP commenced.

(2) Travel and transportation allowances authorized by Section 474 of Title 37, U.S.C., for travel:

(a) From the Service member's residence at the time of release from active duty (to participate in CIP) to the U.S. location designated by the Service member as his or her residence while participating in a CIP.

(b) At the end of the Service member's participation in a CIP, from the U.S. location designated by the Service member as his or her residence while participating in a CIP to the active duty assignment location designated for the Service member.

(c) Service members participating in CIP are responsible for any travel costs incurred while on CIP and during any physical muster or administrative processing when preparing to return to active duty at the end of CIP participation.

(3) Carry forward the accumulated leave balance that exists on the day the Service member begins participating in CIP in accordance with Section 701 of Title 10, U.S.C. The leave balance may not to exceed 60 days.

b. Service members are not authorized special or incentive pay or bonus payments while participating in a CIP. The inactivation of a Service member participating in a CIP will not be treated as a failure of the Service member to perform any period of service required by a special incentive or bonus agreement.

c. When a Service member returns to active duty after completing a CIP:

(1) Any agreement entered into by the Service member under Chapter 5 of Title 37, U.S.C., for the payment of a special or incentive pay or a bonus that was in force when the Service member commenced participation in the CIP will be revived, with the term of such agreement being the period of the agreement remaining when the Service member commenced participation in the CIP. Any special, bonus, or incentive pay agreement will not be revived if the special or incentive pay or bonus is no longer authorized by law or the Service member does not satisfy the eligibility criteria for the special or incentive pay or bonus in effect at the time the Service member returns to active duty.

(a) Any service obligation required of a Service member as a condition on the payment of a special or incentive pay, or a bonus, after CIP participation will be in addition to the legal obligation to serve 2 months on active duty as a member of the Military Service concerned for each month of inactivation as a participant in the CIP.

(b) Any service required of a Service member for the payment of a special or incentive pay or a bonus after CIP participation will be completed before performing the additional obligated service incurred as a participant in the CIP (i.e., the service obligation from CIP will run consecutively to any preexisting service obligation of the Service member at the time of his or her inactivation).

(2) Any special or incentive pay or bonus will be payable to the Service member in accordance with the terms of the agreement concerned for the period of time remaining when the Service member commenced CIP participation unless:

(a) The special or incentive pay or bonus is no longer authorized by law at the time the Service member returns to active duty; or

(b) The Service member no longer satisfies the eligibility criteria for the special or incentive pay or bonus. In such cases, the Service member will be subject to the requirements for repayment of the unearned portion of the special or incentive pay or bonus in accordance with the terms of the Service member's special or incentive pay or bonus agreement.

3.8. MEDICAL AND DENTAL BENEFITS. Medical and dental benefits will be authorized in accordance with Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C. Specifically, a Service member, while participating in a CIP, will be treated as a member of a Military Service on active duty for a period of more than 30 days for purposes of:

a. The entitlement of the Service member and the Service member's dependents to medical and dental care under the provisions of Chapter 55 of Title 10, U.S.C.

b. Retirement or separation for physical disability under the provisions of Chapter 55 and Chapter 61 of Title 10, U.S.C. CIP participants may be returned to active duty to be medically evaluated for disability separation or retirement.

3.9. FUNDING. Pay and allowances authorized for Service members participating in a CIP will be budgeted and funded in the Active Component military personnel appropriations or, in the case of Active Guard Reserve members, from Reserve Component military personnel appropriations of the Military Department conducting the CIP. Medical and dental care authorized by Section 710 of Title 10, U.S.C., will be funded in the Defense Health Program appropriation.

3.10. ENTITLEMENTS. Participating Service members will maintain commissary; morale, welfare, and recreation; and exchange benefits.

3.11. PROMOTION. Service members participating in a CIP are not eligible for consideration for promotion.

a. The Military Department concerned will adjust the date of rank of an officer returning to active duty following CIP participation, in accordance with Enclosure 3 in Section 4 of DoDI 1310.01.

b. An officer returning to active duty will be eligible for consideration for promotion when officers with the same adjusted date of rank and of the same competitive category, grade, and seniority are eligible.

c. Eligibility for consideration for promotion of an enlisted Service member returning to active duty following CIP participation will be based on time in grade and any other requirements prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned in that Department's CIP regulation.

3.12. ANNUAL REPORT. In order to monitor this program's progress, each Military Department implementing a CIP is required to submit a report to the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness by June 1 of each year, in accordance with Paragraph 1.3 of this issuance.

a. The format for the Annual CIP Report can be found at <https://prhome.defense.gov/M-RA/Inside-M-RA/MPP/OEPM/>.

b. Personally identifiable information on CIP participants will not be included in the report.

3.13. SEPARATION PROGRAM DESIGNATION CODES. The Military Services will use Separation Program Designator codes 'FGS' (officers) and 'MGS' (enlisted) for Service members who transition to the Individual Ready Reserve as part of CIP.
